Dear Mr. Higgins,

Thank you for your letter and notes, which I have circulated to the other judges. It was very nice meeting you the other morning, I am only sorry that you had not been fully informed of what was involved, and glad that we have been able to sort it out.

I confirm that 9 January is the date fixed for the preliminary meeting and for the moment, unfortunately, I must leave the final meeting open between 17 and 27 February in the hope that Professor Hoggart will be able to manage a day then.

I enclose the other judges' comments, more publishers' book proposals and list of the books submitted (those on the list which you do not already have are on their way to you). I have called in "Something in Disguise" which should reach me some time this week, and which I will then forward.

Very best wishes,

Yours ever,

Marilyn Edwards
