Lady Antonia Fraser

Dear Antonia,

I hope you haven't had any trouble with the press, things seem reasonably quiet at the moment. I

I am happy to send you Janice Elliott's A State of Peace and the following official entries: Susan Hill's Strange Meeting and Pauline Neville's Voyage of a Life from Hamish Hamilton, The Wall of Glass by Desmond Meiring from Hodder and Stoughton and Muriel Spark's Not To Disturb from Macmillan. Please bear with us on the unbound proof copy of Spark's book. I know it will be difficult to handle and probably to read as well but to have it in before the 1 August deadline Macmillan had no other alternative.

Best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
