Dear Mr. Wells,

I am writing to inquire whether this Association could have the use of the Stationers Hall on the evening of 21 April in order that Miss Jennie Lee may present the 1970 Booker Prize for Fiction to the winning author.

The sort of occasion we have in mind is champagne and a small amount of food for not more than 350 people, starting at 6.00 p.m.

I cannot think of a hall which we would be more delighted or honoured to use. In the past you have always been extremely kind and helpful to us, and I would be very happy if you were able to accommodate us of this occasion.

I look forward very much to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
