Dear Mark,

The whole of the book trade stands in great debt to you for all that you have done, and against many odds. I would just like to add my own deeply felt personal thanks to you for having been such a marvellous President, guide and friend.

I am deeply sorry to hear that you are again unwell and hope very much that you will feel better soon.

Yours,

Marilyn Edwards

I enclose the so-called Minutes of the last Booker Meeting, in the hope that you will be able to attend the lunch on 6 May at Bucklersbury House, which John Murphy is giving to thank you and introduce Rayner Unwin to the "scene".
