

EconLit Subject Descriptors

Connect to EconLit through our moodle database course, Library Information Sources for Business Students or via our Business, Marketing and Economics library home page. If you are not already logged in, you will be asked to enter your Brookes username and password.

1. From the EconLit home page type in your keyword/s for your search. Add quotation marks around two or more words if you want to search for them as a phrase.

2. Scroll down to view all sources. Subject descriptors will appear at the end of an article or book abstract.

3. Click on the link to view record.

The screenshot shows the EconLit search results page. On the left, there are filters for 'Boolean/Phrase' (set to "corporate philanthropy"), 'Limit To' (set to 'Publication Date' with a range from 1968 to 2018), and 'Source Types' (including 'All Results', 'Academic Journals (54)', 'Collective Volume Articles (23)', 'Books (10)', and 'Working Papers (5)'). The main results area shows a single record titled 'Geographies of Corporate Philanthropy: The Northern Rock Foundation' by Marshall, Neill; Dawley, Stuart; Pike, Andy; Pollard, Jane. The record is from 'Environment and Planning A, March 2018, v. 50, iss. 2, pp. 266-87'. A pink callout box with an arrow pointing to the title link says 'Click on the title link to view record'.

4. EconLit subject descriptors can help you narrow a search to a specific topic/subject area. Click on the links to explore sources which have been indexed under these descriptors.
