John Fowles, Esq.,

Dear John,

Just a quick note to say that because of the technical holdups, the scheduled dates for the announcement of the short list and the winner are now 15th October and 25th November, respectively.

As we very much hope that the judges will be present at the dinner on 25th November to celebrate the announcement, I would be very grateful to know if this date would be convenient to you and your wife as I would hope it might be changed if this were not so.

Best wishes.

Yours ever,

Marilyn Edwards
