

10 August 1973

Karl Miller Esq.

Dear Mr Miller,

I have today sent you at the above address two parcels of books submitted by publishers for the Booker Prize. One parcel contains:

- THE FORT: John Hale. Quartet Books
- MACULAN'S DAUGHTER; Sarah Gainham. Macmillan
- PROFESSIONAL LADIES: G. F. Newman. N. E. Library
- THAT WATERY GLASS: Helen Vaughan. Christopher Davies

The second parcel contains:

- ELIZABETH ALONE: Wm. Trevor. Bodley Head
- MAGNUS: George Mackay Brown. Hogarth Press
- A LOT TO ASK: P. H. Newby. Faber & Faber (called in)
- A MAN MADE OF SMOKE: Stanley Middleton. Hutchinson (called in)

The following are books recommended by Cape which the judges may call in up to 1 September:

- A DISTANT LIKENESS: Paul Bailey
- THE RIVERSIDE VILLAS MURDER: Kingley Amis
- THE SUMMER BEFORE THE DARK: Doris Lessing
- FRANKENSTEIN UNBOUND: Brian W. Aldiss

and by Gollancz:

- LIRRI: Jeremy Leland.

Yours sincerely,

Assistant to Marilyn Edwards