Books to support your research

This is a selective list of print and e-books available from Oxford Brookes University Library which focus on planning and conducting PhD research. For further ideas and help:

- Search the Library’s search service, available at http://www.brookes.ac.uk/library/
- Take a look at the Library Web pages for researchers at http://www.brookes.ac.uk/library/researchers.html
- Contact your Academic Liaison Librarian. A list of Librarians can be found at http://www.brookes.ac.uk/library/substaff.html

1) Writing research proposals

Guides to the process of formulating a research question, choosing your research methods, planning your research, and writing your proposal.

2) Doing PhD research

Books about managing a research project. Many of these are step-by-step guides to the whole research process, from the formulation of the initial idea to the writing up and disseminating of results.

3) Writing your thesis

Guides to the preparation, writing and examination of a PhD thesis.