

8 October 1969

Dear Dame Rebecca,

Booker Lunch

I am so sorry that I have tried to organize this lunch at such short notice, and how marvellous that Friday 17 October suits you. The only person who will be unable to attend on that day is Mr. Ross Higgins, who hopes to be able to meet the judges at a later date.

The lunch will be held at Bucklersbury House, 83 Cannon Street, E.C. 4 on the 12th floor at 12.30 for 1.00. I am looking forward very much to being able to meet you then.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
