Dear Bookseller

Weidenfeld & Nicolson are providing the enclosed crowners for the 1973 winner of the Booker Prize and we do hope they will help you to display the book. The winner this year is "The Siege of Krishnapur" by J G Farrell published by them at £2.25. This result will be officially announced at a dinner on Wednesday 28 November, but until that date we would ask you not to use this crowner or to pass on the information to anyone else.

Yours sincerely
