London, W. 8.

Dear Lady Antonia,

Booker Prize

I am delighted that you will be able to lunch with the other judges on Friday 17th October. I must apologize for the late notice, and in your case it is exceptionally noble of you to comply with this arrangement as things are obviously going to be hectic!

The lunch will be held at 12.30 for 1.00 in Bucklersbury House, 83 Cannon Street, London, E.C. 4, on the 12th floor! (The Booker Brothers' establishment).

I look forward very much to meeting you then.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
