

26th September 1968

Dear Miss Mortimer,

I very much hope that you will be able to have luncheon with me on Thursday, the 3rd of October, in the Lonsdale Room at the Cafe Royal after the Press Conference. I am inviting the panel of judges and those in the Publishers' Association and Booker McConnell who have been responsible for planning the details of our literary prize.

I shall look forward to seeing you then.

Yours sincerely,

Chairman
Booker McConnell Limited
