

9 August 1973

Miss Edna O'Brien,
10 Carlyle Square,
London S. W. 3

Dear Miss O'Brien,

Thank you so much for letting me know your movements and for agreeing to the September date for a meeting of the Judges. Unfortunately I have still not heard from Mary McCarthy whether this will be possible for her, so I cannot finally confirm that date but will do so as soon as I have heard.

The reason why I am writing to you is that I may have omitted the list recommending books sent to me from Jonathan Cape and in case you would like to call in any of these titles I now enclose that list plus the list of other recommended titles as a reminder. The Judges may not call in any books after 1 September.

Best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards

Enc. 2