

16 June 1969

Huw Wheldon, Esq.,
BBC Television Centre,
London, W. 12.

Dear Mr. Wheldon,

Booker Prize

Thank you so much for your letter of the 6th, and for taking so much time to consider the whole thing. My disappointment is slightly alleviated by the fact that Richard Hoggart has just accepted.

I'm delighted that you think Howard Newby was a good choice. I was terribly pleased with it. I hope you may be able to take part at some future date.

Yours sincerely,

Jill Mortimer