

Finding books and eBooks for Modern Languages

1. How do I search for books & eBooks?

Use LibrarySearch on the Library home page at <http://www.brookes.ac.uk/library/>
Type in the type in the author, title or subject that you are interested in and click Search.

Search the library

Search

Books will usually come up at the top of your search results, but you will also find articles and other resources. To see only the book results, scroll down the Search Tools box on the left of the screen. Look for the Format option and tick the box next to Book.

The screenshot shows the search results for the book 'Intercultural communication : a discourse approach' by Ronald Scollon, Suzanne B.K. Scollon, and Rodney H. Jones. The page includes a book cover, author information, and a 'View eBook' button. Callout boxes provide instructions: 'Copy the citation NB always check Cite Them Right Online.' points to the citation information; 'Connect to the eBook (Brookes student number & password required)' points to the 'View eBook' button; 'View reading lists that recommend this book' points to the 'Reading Lists' section; and 'View further information about contents of the book – often includes chapter headings' points to the 'View Description' link.

Print books have a call number which this tells you where the book is shelved in the Library, for example 306.44/COM. If the book is on loan to another user or at one of our other libraries, you can put a hold on it. If it's on the shelves, it's quicker for you to go and get it yourself.

2. How do I borrow books?

- Use the self-service machines to borrow books (you'll need your student card).
- Undergraduates may borrow up to 20 books (Postgraduates, staff and researchers may borrow up to 30) for 1 week.
- Most items will be automatically renewed on the date they are due to be returned. Loans that have been reserved by someone else will not be automatically renewed and must be returned.
NB Check your Brookes emails to keep track of your loans and renewals. We will only contact you if you need to do something.

3. If I want to browse the Library shelves, where should I go?

The Library has a range of books, dictionaries, audio-visual materials and online resources to help you with studying languages. Books are shelved by subject rather than language, so you may need to use various sections of the Library for your course. Every item is assigned a call number which enables you to locate it on the library shelves, for example:

- Books on intercultural communication are at 306.44
- The book Intercultural Communication by Ronald Scollon is at 306.44 SCO

The call number is usually displayed on the spine of the item. Books are arranged numerically on the library shelves from 000 – 999. If you look at the end of each shelf you will see a sign which tells you which call numbers are located there.

Here are some useful sections of the Library:
