

Miss M. Edwards,
The Publishers Association,
19, Bedford Square,
London, W.C.1.

2nd February, 1970.

Dear Marilyn,

One point we forgot in talking about the material for the Booker Prize was a band or wrapper for the winning book. I am sure this is extremely desirable and should, of course, be done in conjunction with the design for the winning poster. Obviously the winning quantity should be 3,000, since this is what the winning publisher has to have in stock.

With best wishes,

Yours ever,

(J.N. Murphy)