

C. W. Tyrrell, Esq., F.C.A.,

14th December, 1971

Dear Charles,

As promised, here is a copy of the Booker Prizewinner, signed by Naipaul. We had a very splendid lunch with David, George Bishop and with Naipaul running rings round everybody and it is actually not a bad book. Of course, it is not a full length novel, but never mind.

I will ring you before Christmas.

Yours ever,

(J.N. Murphy)