Rt. Hon. Lord Hardinge of Penshurst,
Hunts Barn,
Mayfield,
Sussex.

Dear George,

Thank you very much indeed for doing a draft of a letter to David. As you will see, I have followed the thoughts in your letter but changed the emphasis and shortened it a bit. I have also taken Tom's note to you into account. I thought also that I had better actually sign it since he had written to me to start with. I have now sent the letter off to David.

I do hope you agree with this; if you think I have gone violently wrong in any direction, do tell me.

I look forward to seeing you soon.

Yours,

J.N. Murphy
