

Miss Marilyn Edwards,
The Publishers Association,
19, Bedford Square,
London, W. C. 1.

21st August, 1970.

Dear Marilyn,

I am now back in circulation, having recovered from my ridiculous disease.

As soon as George Hardinge comes back from holiday, which will be on 9th September, I think we ought to have another meeting of our Committee to carry on from the excellent meeting you had last time.

Look forward to seeing you.

Yours,

(J. N. Murphy)
