Lady Antonia Fraser

Dear Antonio,

I enclose a copy of You Want the Right Frame of Reference by William Cooper which you have called in and Words by Gabriel Josipovici which has been submitted as an official entry by Gollancz to be published in October. I also enclose a recommended list of titles from Gollancz, who particularly asked me to emphasize The Last and the First by Ivy Compton-Burnett which was published in February this year.

Malcolm Muggeridge has called in Mrs. Palfrey at the Claremont by Elizabeth Taylor and Hans Feet in Love by William Sansom, but I am still awaiting them from Chatto & Windus.

I do apologize for the delay in getting these books to you but it was a combination of these books not being sent to me and my optimistic waiting for titles.

Yours,

Marilyn Edwards
