Dear Mr Jenkins,

As administrator of the Booker Prize for Fiction on behalf of the Publishers Association and Booker McConnell Ltd, I was delighted to hear from Graham Greene that you have accepted his invitation to present the prize in November.

As you know, the planned date for the announcement was 16 November but, unfortunately, for administrative purposes and to avoid clashing with other events, we have had to change the day to Thursday of the following week so that it will now take place on 23 November.

I am very sorry that the day has been changed, but I do hope that you will still wish to present the prize on the new date.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
