Dear Miss Bowen,

Booker Prize 1972

A short letter to clarify a point that may not have been made sufficiently clear when I first wrote to you. If the Judges wish to call in titles could they please do it through me to avoid confusion with authors or publishers. There is a clause in the rules which states that all negotiations should be done through this office. The closing date for Judges to call in titles is 1 September. Books published at any time during the year are eligible to be called in.

I have much pleasure in enclosing the following:

Brian Glanville:	THE FINANCIERS	Secker & Warburg
M. O'Donoghue:	WILD HONEY TIME	Hodder & Stoughton
Elaine Feinstein:	THE AMBERSTONE EXIT	Hutchinson
Arthur Koestler:	THE CALL GIRLS	Hutchinson

4 additional titles - Hodder & Stoughton
2 additional titles - Hutchinson

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards

Yours sincerely,
