

Martyn Goff, Esq., F.I.A.L.,
Director,
The National Book League,
7, Albemarle Street,
London, W1X 4BB.

18th December, 1970.

Dear Martyn,

Thank you for your letter. I tremble at having caused you to change your hotel! I must emphasise that Los Gigantes is tucked away right by itself, but it did seem rather pleasant when I called in for a drink.

My secretary has confirmed lunch for 1st January. Would you like to meet me in the downstairs bar of the Ritz at about 1 o'clock?

With best wishes,

Yours,

(J.N. Murphy)