Dear Member,

BOOKER PRIZE

For tax purposes, it will be necessary to have an official entry form, which is not yet available. However, to enable the judges to cope with the backlog of reading they will have to do for this year's prize, we would like you to submit as soon as possible the titles you wish to enter for the prize.

As you already know these are limited to a maximum of two titles from each publisher, and six copies of each title should be sent to me at the above address for distribution to the judges.

You will also know that novels first published in Britain between 1 December 1967 and 30 November 1968 are eligible, so long as the author is from Great Britain, the Commonwealth or the Republics of Ireland and South Africa.

Entry forms will be sent to you as soon as they are ready and further copies of the rules are available from me at this office.

Yours sincerely,

Jill Mortiner
