

3.

Entry of Books (continued)

- (b) Each publisher is also asked to submit a List of up to four further titles published or to be published by them between 1st January 1971 and 16th November 1971 (i.e. already published or still in proof) ~~which~~ will be passed on to the judges who will decide whether the books listed should be called in for consideration. Six copies of each such list must be submitted to the address above by 1st July 1971. If requested by the judges six copies of any book called in - which will then become eligible - must be sent.

177
this list