

14 September 1973

Miss Mary McCarthy,

Dear Miss McCarthy,

I am so sorry to hear of the trouble that occurred over dates for the first judging session of the Booker Prize.

I am sending a copy of this letter to Hotel Bristol in case it does not reach you in America before you leave; with the copy you will find a confirmation of booking form which has you booked in as Miss Mary McCarthy.

The venue for the meeting will be a Board Room on the 12th floor of Booker-McConnell, Bucklersbury House, Cannon Street, E.C.4 (telephone number 248 8051) at 12.0 noon on 26 September.

I look forward very much to seeing you then.

Yours sincerely

Marilyn Edwards