Dear Mr. Hudson,

Thank you for your letter to Mike Hearder of 13th December 1969.

You are quite right in saying that we had no order from you for these books. It was in fact agreed between Michael Caine, Lionel Wharrad and myself that twelve copies would be sufficient to tie in with the announcement of the first award of the Booker Prize. I regret that Bookers Stores have been unable to sell more than two of these. We did not in fact intend to charge you the air freight of £9.13.0d. and this is a mistake for which we apologise. May I suggest that you recharge us this amount of £9.13.0d., plus the £9.0.0d. for the books, through the Group Clearing House.

Yours sincerely,

(J.N. Murphy)
