

22 October 1971

Peter Greavenor, Esq.,
Daily Express
Fleet Street,
London, E.C. 4.

Dear Peter,

It was lovely to see the Aside Lines piece on 16 October on the Booker Prize, for which I am deeply indebted to you. You're so good to have played by the rules!

And again, even today.

Do you take time off ever to have lunch or drinks, and may I suggest that we might if you do - perhaps the 2nd or 3rd or 4th November?

Best wishes,

Yours

Marilyn Edwards