Dear Mr Connolly,

Booker Prize 1972

I now have pleasure in sending you a copy of 'The Collections' by L. P. Hartley, which is the first entry we have received from Hamish Hamilton. They will also be sending in due course 'The Bird of Night' by Susan Hill.

They wish to draw the attention of the Judges to the attached list. The Judges may call in either of these titles for consideration if they so wish.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
