

Booker

NATIONAL BOOK
LEAGUE

Information for Authors: The National Book League is a voluntary organization which aims to promote the publication of books of high quality and to encourage the reading of books. It is a non-profit-making organization and its funds are derived from the sale of books and from donations. It is a registered charity and its accounts are audited annually. For more information, please contact the National Book League, 100 Strand, London WC2R 0AL.

14 July 1972

LONDON: THE NATIONAL BOOK LEAGUE, 100 STRAND, WC2R 0AL

Mrs Rhiannon Gooding,
MacGibbon & Kee Ltd.
3 Upper James Street,
Golden Square, W1R 4BP

Dear Mrs Gooding,

Dear Sir/Madam

Booker Prize 1972

Thank you for your inquiry.

I am very sorry to have to approach you on this matter but a parcel of books for one of our Judges suffered a fate worse than death, as a result of which '334' by Thomas M. Disch and 'An Alien Heat' by Michael Moorcock are missing. Could you please send me one copy of each as soon as possible? I do hope it is not going to be too difficult as I realize you may not have many proof copies available.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards

Yours faithfully,

Book Information Bureau