Dear Ion,

I had a dream that I wrote you a letter and in the cold darkness of Friday night, I now think I didn't. If I didn't forgive me. If I did, read no more.

Your piece on 15 October was very marvellous, it was really great that you did it like that, I am merely sorry that the teasing is restricted to an annual event! But really, thank you.

Yours,

I am sure you know them anyway, but a thought crossed my mind:-
