Dear Professor Hoggart,

Thank you for your letter. I have tried to ring you twice with no success so I am writing in case I fail completely. Absolutely delighted that you will be able to come on Tuesday, 21st. There is a preliminary meeting being held at 6.00 p.m. for you to meet the short-listed authors and Jennie Lee and if you can manage to be there by 6.00 it would be better. The reception should be over by 8.15 or 8.30 at the latest so there would be plenty of time for you to get the last plane to Orly.

I enclose the invitation in case you have not received one which gives the address of Stationers' Hall (officially it is off Ave Maria Lane which is off Ludgate Hill). We will be meeting in an ante-room but I will be standing on guard duty in the Court to direct you.

I look forward very much to seeing you.

Yours ever,

Marilyn Edwards
