Dear John,

Thank you for your letter of the 14th. I have passed on the sad fact (from our point of view at any rate!) that you will be in Germany on 4 December to the others, and impressed upon them the importance of attending as George Hardinge will be there in the 'chair'.

Tom Maschler has written to say that he feels that if we are giving a party for literary editors etc., we should include the TLS, New Statesman and Spectator. Point well made. Also, he is very keen to attend the next meeting after the 4th, which presumably will be after Christmas, and therefore easier to arrange.

Best wishes,

Yours

Marilyn Edwards
