Dear Tom,

Britannia Prize

I enclose a report on the meeting we had the other night at the Booker flat with Bill Webb. The purpose of this is really for Jill and you to show to the Publishers' Association and get their agreement to the project. I had lunch with Jill today and we discussed this, and she will no doubt be in touch with you.

As you know, we were very impressed with Bill Webb, and definitely want him to be the Chairman of the judges' panel for the first year. Jill is trying to arrange a meeting with Bill Webb so that the judges can be picked, so I hope to see you then.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

(J.N. Murphy)
