Dear Lady Antonia,

Booker Prize Reception - 21 April 1970

This is just a brief note about the night of the 21st, which I hope you will be able to attend. If you wish to bring any guests, we would of course be delighted. It has been suggested that the judges should meet Jennie Lee and the short-list authors in advance of the main Reception and I wonder if you would be able to go to Stationers Hall at 6 p.m., so that a small informal preliminary meeting could take place.

David Holloway will speak as Chairman on behalf of the other judges, and Jennie Lee will present the cheque and trophy to the winner.

I look forward very much to seeing you again, if a little apprehensively!

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
