Dear Tom,

Congratulations and all good wishes on your marriage.

I have thought over our telephone discussion and don't really see that we need to meet on May 6th as I am sure that you, as one of the organisers of the prize, would do nothing to harm it in your speech to the Bookmen Society.

Marilyn is arranging a meeting as soon as possible on a date when we can all be present to consider next year's prize and next year's judges.

I look forward to seeing you then.

Yours ever,

(J. N. Murphy).
