Little Essex Street,
London W.C.2.

Dear Lord Hardinge,

Somewhat belatedly, I fear, I enclose draft minutes of the meeting held on 4 December for your approval. I would be very grateful if you could glance through them and make any alterations that you feel they require, and return them to me as soon as possible so that I may stencil them and send them to all members of the Committee.

I am sorry to lumber you with this chore as Charles Tyrrel took the Chair on that occasion but as I do not know his home address and he is not often in the office I asked John Murphy what I should do and he suggested that I should throw myself upon your mercy. Many thanks.

Have a lovely Christmas and New Year.

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards
