Dear Sir Madam,

Dear Dr Steiner,
Booker Prize 1972

Cyril Connolly, as Chairman, has asked me to convey to you his great pleasure at being one of the Judges with you on this year's Booker Panel. He looks forward very much to working with you when the time comes.

Further titles are on their way to you under separate cover. I am sorry that the wave is increasing with such concentration, but this is a problem of judging on pre-publication copies which are never ready far enough in advance.

Best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Marilyn Edwards

Yours faithfully,
