Dear Marilyn,

BOOKER PRIZE

I have now received an invoice from The Publishers Association in respect of expenses in connection with the 1972 Booker Prize. I have paid this amount direct to The Publishers Association. I would now like to settle the expenses of the 1972 Booker Prize and would be grateful if you could let me have a revised invoice in respect of expenditure incurred by the National Book League.

The invoice you sent me on 26th March (no: 8102) needed various amendments since receipts from the short-listed publishers had not been deducted and I think you have paid a further bill to The Bookseller. You also promised to let me have copies of the accounts from Smiths Trade News and The Bookseller.

I would like to finalise this matter as soon as possible so that I can close my files for the 1972 Booker Prize.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Weekes
