

Miss L.P. Birmingham,

Personal address removed

29th February, 1972.

Dear Miss Birmingham,

In reply to your letter of 25 January I am afraid that I am unable to send you an entry form for the Booker prize, as only book publishers may enter books by any author for the prize.

Might I suggest that in order to get your book and plays published you obtain a copy of the "Writers' and Artists' Year Book" published by A & C. Black, in which are listed the major literary agents and publishers in this country. You will find a chapter laying out how best to approach such firms, and it is usually best to submit a short synopsis of your work.

Yours sincerely,

MARILYN EDWARDS.
